Scouting at Ijams

Scouting has a long history at Ijams Nature Center. Scouting was something that the Ijams family embraced and enjoyed. After the tragic death of Mary Ijams in 1932, the Ijams family designated a portion of their land to be used as a Girl Scout summer day camp, Camp Mary Ijams.

Through the years, scouting has flourished at Ijams Nature Center with dozens of boy and girl scouts visiting every year. Incorporating the motto "be prepared," Ijams offers diverse programming ranging in ability, age and educational subject. We hope that you will try scouting at Ijams Nature Center.
